

weekday weddings

Here are 6 reasons to get married on a Monday - Wednesday.

1. Choice - this means that those bride and grooms who are not fixed to a Friday or Saturday will have lots more choice in terms of dates on the calendar.

2. Significant day - you may want to get married on a significant date that falls on midweek days, for example - when you proposed, when you met or even a birthday to help you remember your anniversary date!

3. Cost - choosing a Monday - Wednesday means that you could save significant costs in all aspects of your wedding, not just with the venue, but also hotels, florists, entertainment and much more.

4. Registrar flexibility - although registrars of Cheshire East can accommodate most weddings in the county, when choosing a weekend date it is not uncommon to be restricted into a time for your ceremony that you may not have dreamt of. With midweek bookings you will have no such problem and the choice will be yours!

5. Supplier availability - the best suppliers are booked up like the best venues and opting for a Monday - Wednesday means you will be able to have a huge amount of choice meaning you can choose the best florists, entertainment, photographer and much more.

6. OUR MIDWEEK PACKAGE!

As we all know there are many well known traditions associated with weddings, but did you know that the days of the week have meanings?
